

Chamber Executive & Secretariat visit Sir Lloyd Erskine Sandiford as he readies for China

Members of the Executive of the Barbados Chamber of Commerce & Industry paid a courtesy call to Sir Lloyd Erskine Sandiford on January 11th 2010.

As the former prime Minister gets ready to assume duties as resident Ambassador to China, he was delighted to have discussions with the Chamber.

On hand were President Glenda Medford, Senior Vice President Andy Armstrong, Executive Director Lisa Gale along with other Council members Roger Bryan, Stephen Greaves, Roseanne Myers, Roger Barrow and Pamela Laurie.

At the meeting, the officials discussed the way forward to establish relations between the Chamber and the Mission in China. Sir Lloyd emphasised that inputs from the private sector are key to successful outcomes for the business community of Barbados.

The Chamber expressed its desire to be part of the Mission's mandate to boost business connections between China and Barbados.
